You've Worked Hard...

Review: Que!007 Portable Digital Theater

CD/DVD recorder/player does it all but still manages to suck.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

By Lawson Wong

You'd need extra fingers to count the functions of the QPS Que!007 Portable Digital Theater. This thing burns DVDs and CDs. It plays MP3 and audio CDs. It'll play DVDs on your television. If you got photos burned onto a CD, it'll display those, too.

So why does the QPS Que!007 leave us feeling as if we had just witnessed our team's game-winning touchdown pass get intercepted? Watch "Fresh Gear" to find out.

Review: Meade CaptureView Binoculars 8x42 2.0D

Find out why we say 'pass' on this $200 digital camera/binoculars duo.

By James Kim

Bird watchers, sports fanatics, and Peeping Toms would wither and die without a pair of good binoculars. Add a digital camera to the mix and you've got a four-eyes' dream.

Meade's CaptureView binoculars pack a digital camera, letting users capture images of far-away subjects such as macaws, outfielders, or, well... you know. While the latest CaptureView employs a better 2-megapixel CMOS (complimentary metal-oxide semiconductor) sensor, most photo enthusiasts will be turned off by poor image quality.

Review: Eyetop

Cyborg-chic glasses will torture your eyes and spin you into vertigo.

★★★★★

By Lawson Wong

Mobile video screen doubles as fashion eyewear! Sounds exciting, right? Wrong. The Eyetop portable display glasses make us want to puke, literally. The concept of a display on the go may seem novel, but that's all the $449 Eyetop has going for it.

Review: Handspring Treo 600

Handspring's new Treo 600 is the cellphone/PDA hybrid to buy.

By Hahn Choi

Call me a PDA/cellphone slut -- I've used 'em all. Some make amazing data and messaging devices, while others make great cellphones but terrible messaging devices. Handspring's third incarnation of its Treo PDA/phone hybrid, the Treo 600, achieves the delicate balance that eluded so many before it. Plus, you get the benefit of a mainstream Palm operating system.

I dated the GSM version of the Treo 600 for a bit. Watch "Fresh Gear" this Tuesday to see why it could be "the one."

New Treo 600 Rules, With Bright Screen And Long Battery Life

By WALTER S. MOSSBERG

Handspring has done it again. In 2001, the little company introduced the best combination phone, PDA and e-mail device on the market, the Treo. Now, Handspring has topped itself with its all-new version, the Treo 600.

Sprint will start selling the Treo 600 in the U.S. by mid-October for $500 to $550. In Europe, the wireless-phone carrier Orange is also about to start selling it as well. Handspring expects to offer Treo 600s that can be used on

Your Mission, Should You Choose To Accept It...

A Marketing professional, like a lawyer, is an advocate for the client. Just as the lawyer uses all the arguments at his disposal to win the case, so does the marketer use all the facts at his disposal to win the customer (or reviewer) over to the product.

Bob Bly
Copywriter

So What's the difference?

- Some products will never win
- Many products are equal
- Occasionally you get a product that will win no matter what
- Perception is everything
- You can and must manage perception
- Reviewers are overworked, underpaid (and some are lazy)

A Day in the Life of a Reviewer

- Deadline
- Try out new product
- Doesn't work – make calls
- Deadline
- Try second product
- Interruption
- Second product works but don't understand it
- Deadline
- First company never calls back
- Finish second product review
- Attempt to set up lab for third product
- Don't have the right equipment
- Deadline
- Interruption
- Next day:
  - Go back to first bullet
  - See “Groundhog Day” movie

Top 10 Ways to Get A Great Review...

10. Put a Dedicated Senior Product Manager on the Job

Put a Dedicated Senior Product Manager on the Job

- This will be as important as the product itself
- Ideal candidate
  - Responsible & good planner
  - Done review programs before
  - Has charisma
  - Ultimately will convey to the reviewer what the company is all about (flaky, responsive, uncaring, customer-focused)
- Get a commitment from management that this will be her/his number one priority for 6 months
- Take them on the press tour
- Build the relationship!!!

Top 10 Ways to Get A Great Review...

9. Work From a Timeline and Hold Bi-weekly Meetings
10. Put a Dedicated Senior Product Manager on the Job

Work From a Timeline and Hold Bi-weekly Meetings

- Use a timeline to communicate/control
- Factor in slippage
- Insist on meeting every 1-2 weeks
- Ask the PM to send a weekly status email

8. Get Your Materials & References Together
9. Work From a Timeline and Hold Bi-weekly Meetings
10. Put a Dedicated Senior Product Manager on the Job

Do the Killer Demo: Practice Practice Practice

- May be the only time they see the product
- A great demo:
  - Shows top 5 features & benefits
  - Appeals to logic & emotion
  - Uses a real-world scenario
  - Flows and tells a story
  - Build tension & climax
  - Make sure that is an unexpected “Aha” twist
- Practice:
  - Internally
  - Pre-flight
- Refuse to change the demo at the last minute

Set the Competitive Argument

- Tell them what category you are in
  - Gets you into roundups (even if not necessarily a fit)
  - Makes the logical part of their work much easier
- If you don't set the argument, they will
- “But We Don't Have Any Competition”

Whistle Product Comparison

Whistle InterJet vs. Apexx Team Internet

Once connected to the Internet, imagine all the things you'll want to do, like use Internet e-mail to correspond for business or surf the net to take advantage of its vast resources.

In this product comparison, you'll find that you can do all these things and more with the Whistle InterJet, while Team Internet provides less functionality and is harder to configure.

"The InterJet is broadly more polished, offers more features, and better accomplishes the mission of connecting a small business to the Internet."

Boardwatch Magazine June 1997

Whistle InterJet

The InterJet connects your LAN to the Internet, providing everyone in your office with e-mail and Web access. Easy to setup and manage, the InterJet includes:

- Automatic configuration - your InterJet configures itself for you via any of the 100+ Whistle-certified ISPs and their 1,000+ POPs throughout the U.S. This self availability ensures a quick setup and configuration that is guaranteed to work with the ISP.
- an e-mail server, which lets you create or remove e-mail accounts independently of your ISP. Because your e-mail server is on-site, your internal messages don't have to travel the Internet and needlessly clog bandwidth or cause delays.
- a Web server which lets you host your web site and/or create an intranet for internal communications.

As illustrated in the comparison chart to the left, the InterJet offers all the servers and features needed to give full Internet productivity to everyone in your small to medium-sized office.

Apexx Team Internet

Team Internet provides Web access and a basic e-mail server. Unlike the InterJet, Team Internet is configured manually, and you must coordinate with your ISP to get the product functioning correctly. ISPs have their systems set up differently, so a significant amount of time might be required to get things working, with no guarantee of success.

Team Internet is designed primarily as a Windows-only solution, with no installers or file system support for other platforms. It lacks an intranet Web server, battery backup to prevent data loss, and easy Web mirroring. Once installed, Team Internet also lacks any kind of Web server - and adding one may cost another $1000-$2000 in software and hardware.

IV. A Guided Tour of Planet Intra

This section will give you a hands on tour of Planet Intra to give you the full experience of its powerful features and the simplicity of getting an Intranet up and running with it.

The scenario for this guided tour is that you are the president of a small graphic design agency. You have currently have 15 employees – enough so that communication in the office has become a challenge. You are looking for a solution that will provide a centralized place where employees can go to find information and that will allow you all to collaborate and better work together to utilize the technology at your company.

Planet Intra is a full-featured, powerful Intranet groupware solution. To get started creating an Intranet all you do is specify a name for your site, provide some basic information such as your name and email address, and then let Planet Intra set up the rest for you.

Within a matter of minutes you can quickly and easily deploy an Intranet site and get started working immediately.

Setting up your first Intranet

	To make things easier for you as a reviewer we've already set up an account for you at _____ Simply point your browser to this site and you'll see a screen that looks like the one to the left. Log on with the username Admin and the password _____
---	--

	You'll first see a screen called Getting Started – that explains that you are about to use the Getting Started Wizard to create your Intranet. Click on "Continue Setup"
	In the Set Up Users screen create a new user with the following information: First Name: Jimmy Last Name: Smith Username: jsmith Email Address: jsmith@planet-intra.com Password: smitk Click on the "Add User" button. That's it – you've already created your first user!
	Now that you have created his account, Jimmy Smith will be able to securely log in and access the Intranet with his username and password. In addition to security via usernames and passwords users can also choose an SSL secure version of Planet Intra for an additional fee to provide the highest level of security possible when connecting to the Intranet. You can add as many users as you would like at this time, or you can easily add additional users later. For now we'll move on to the next step in the setup process. Click on the "Next" button in the upper right corner of the screen.
